GOTTON—The market during the past week has ruled quite of which he warrants to be of the best material and work-firm for this article, but owing to the difficulty in shipping it closes rather quiet, and buyers do not appear disposed to prompt customers. purchase to any extent at present. The sales comprise only about 600 bales at 121 cents for low middling, 121 cents for orler. Harness and Coach Trimmings sold at a fair price

CORN MEAL-Is in mederate supply, and sells in the small sion way from store at 85 cents per bushel. EMPTY BARRELS-Very few Spirits Turpentine barrels have been received for several weeks past, and the stock on market has become materially reduced. We quote small sales during the week of second hand ones at $1 65 to $1 75 each, according to quality. Fish-The market is poorly supplied with mullets, but we notice merely a retail demand. See table for store prices. FLOUR--in the market for this article we have no alteration to notice. The receipts per railroad have been moder ate, and the stock in store is fully fair; - the demand is principally from retailers who do not seem disposed to purchase more than is sufficient for their immediate wants .--We quote sales of State brands during the week at $6 25 for cross, $6 75 for fine, $7 25 for superfine, and $7 75 per bbl. for family.

FEATHERS -- Are brought in sparingly, and the market is almost bare. We quote from store at 55 cents per lb. 75 reams Wrapping Paper;
5 bbls. No. 1 Mackerel. Besides a good many other GRAIN-For Coan the market exhibits rather more firmness than for some time past. There is a moderate demand from dealers, and we learn that some orders have been received to purchase for an interior market. On Wednesday we note the arrival from Hyde County of five cargoes (7,-EMORIALS AND OTHER PAPERS, by Thomas 376 bushels,) but at the time of closing our report this morn-DeQuincey, author of Confessions of an English Oping only 1,500 bushels had sold on private terms—believed at about 73 cents per bushel. We quote at 72 a 74 cents, Poems by Charles Kingslesy, author of Hypatie, Annyas as in quality, with buyers generally offering 70 cents -Oars-Are in good demand, and no late receipts; supply very light. A few cargoes would readily bring 50 cents per bushel for good quallit . PEAS -In the absence of re-ceipts the supply of Cow has become very much reduced, our last we notice limited receipts, and owing mainly to the scarcity of vessels, there is very little demand. One lot of 1,000 bushels red now on market for which $1.40 has been offered, but it is held at $1.45.—RICE—There is a full steck of clean in store, and no demand except for retailing purposes. We quote at 4 a 4j cents per lb., as in quantity.

HAY—We note rather more enquiry for this article from dealers, and the small receipts for some time past has caused the stock on market to become materially reduced. A lot of 150 bales Eastern was received on Saturday lat and taken at $1.25 per 100 lbs. No receipts of Northern, and we quote nominally at $1.10 a $1.20, as in quality.

LIME—For this article we notice a better demand, and owing to the limited receipts for some time past, the stock on market has become much reduced. We quote cargo price at $1 a $1.05 per cask; from store $1.35, in quantities to suit. Lumber—River—No transactions, and we refer to our table for last quotations.

Molasses—Since our last we note the arrival from Cardenas of a cargo of 295 hhds., so that there is a fair stock in first hands. There has been a moderate demand during the week, with sales from wharf at 46 cents in lots, and 47 cents per gallon for single hhd. PEA NUTS-Continue to be brought in sparingly, and we notice more enquiry for them. Sales for the week from carts and wagons at $1 10 a $1 25 per bushel--generally at lowest

POTATOES-For Irish there has been rather more enquiry during the week for planting with sales from store at quotations, as in quantity. See table. Very few Sweet have been brought in and they sell from boats and carts at 75 a 90 cents per bushel. PROVISIONS-For N. C. cured Bacon the market has ruled inactive during the week Retailers have a supply on hand fully sufficient for their uses, and as the demand is generally confined to the trade, the transactions have been limited. We notice sales of only 6 a 8,0.0 lbs. hog round at 12, 121 a 121 cents per lb., as in quality—cash and time. See table for quotations of hams, shoulders and sides. do. Fulton Pork—In Northern Mess there is no alteration to note in prices. The supply on market has been considerably reduced in consequence of the light receipts, though it is fully fair for the demand. From store we quote sales during the week at $22 50 a $23 00 per bbl., as in quantity. Fresh has been brought in rather more freely, and during the first of the week the price gave way a shade; it has since gone up, howweek the price gave way a shade; it has since gone up, however, and now sells at 8 to 9½ cents per lb., as in quality.

Salt—The market continues to rule very dull for both Liverpool and Alum, and is well supplied. We refer to our table for cargo and store rates of both qualities.

Shingles—There has been some enquiry during the past week for shipping purposes, and the market rules firmer for Common. See table for prices.
